ORCHARD

Gerald was a tall giraffe
Whose neck was long and slim,
But his knees were awfully bandy
And his legs were rather thin.

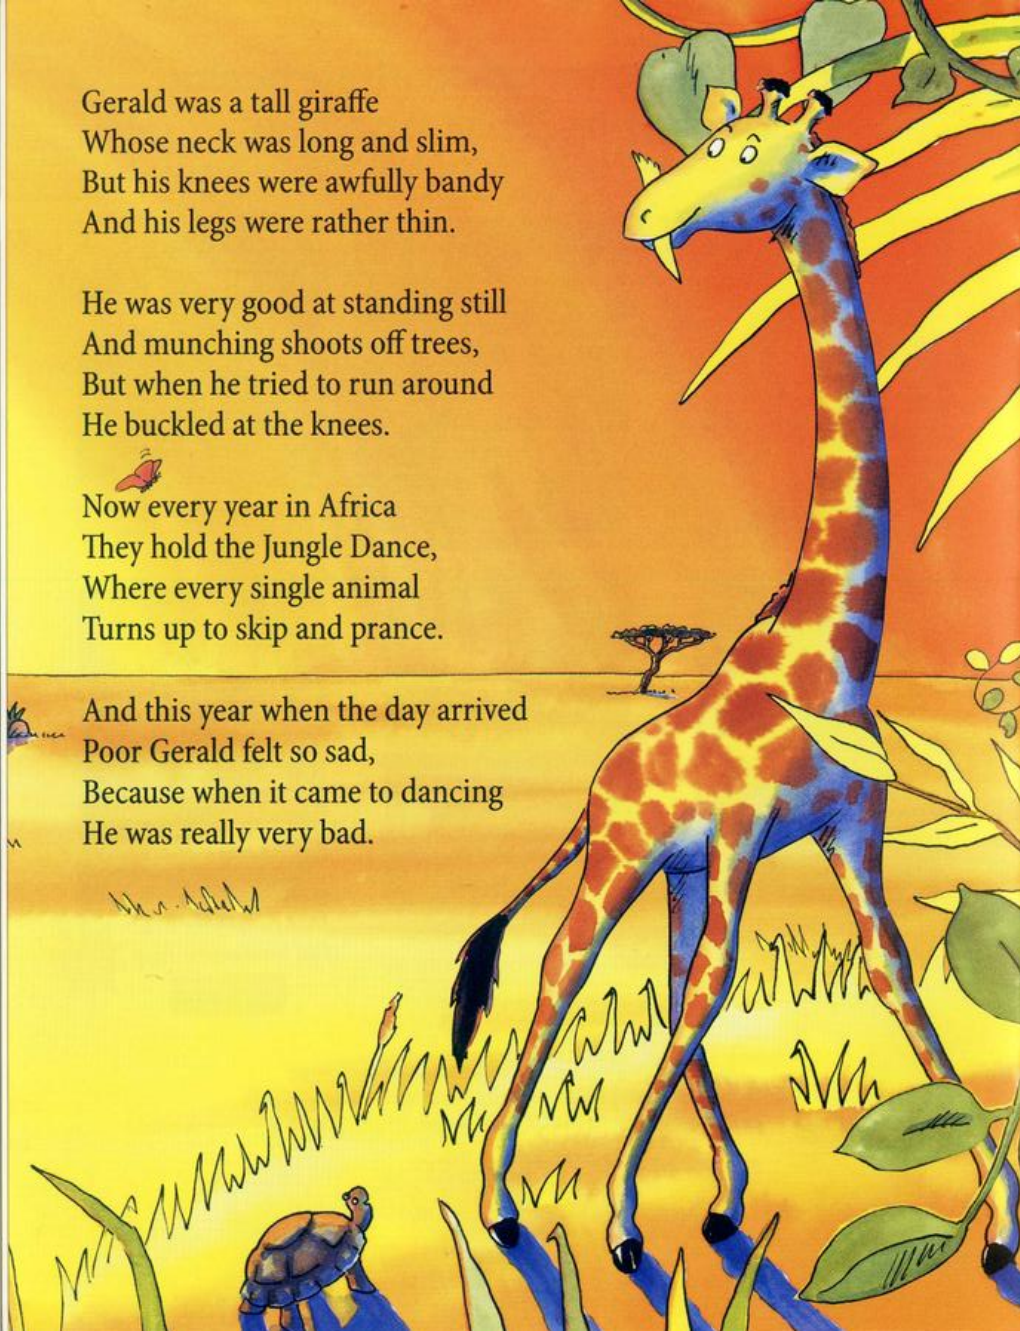

He was very good at standing still
And munching shoots off trees,
But when he tried to run around
He buckled at the knees.

Now every year in Africa
They hold the Jungle Dance,
Where every single animal
Turns up to skip and prance.

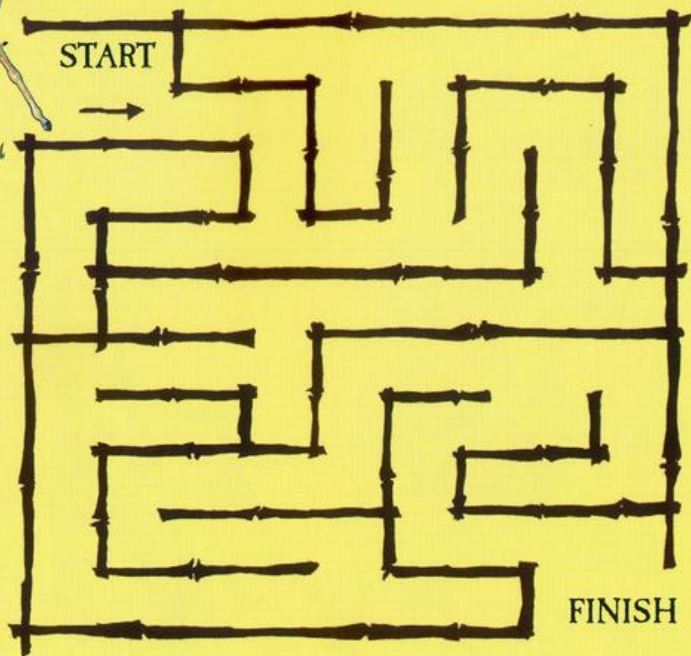

And this year when the day arrived
Poor Gerald felt so sad,
Because when it came to dancing
He was really very bad.

JUNGLE MAZE

Can you help Gerald find the right path through the jungle to the dance?

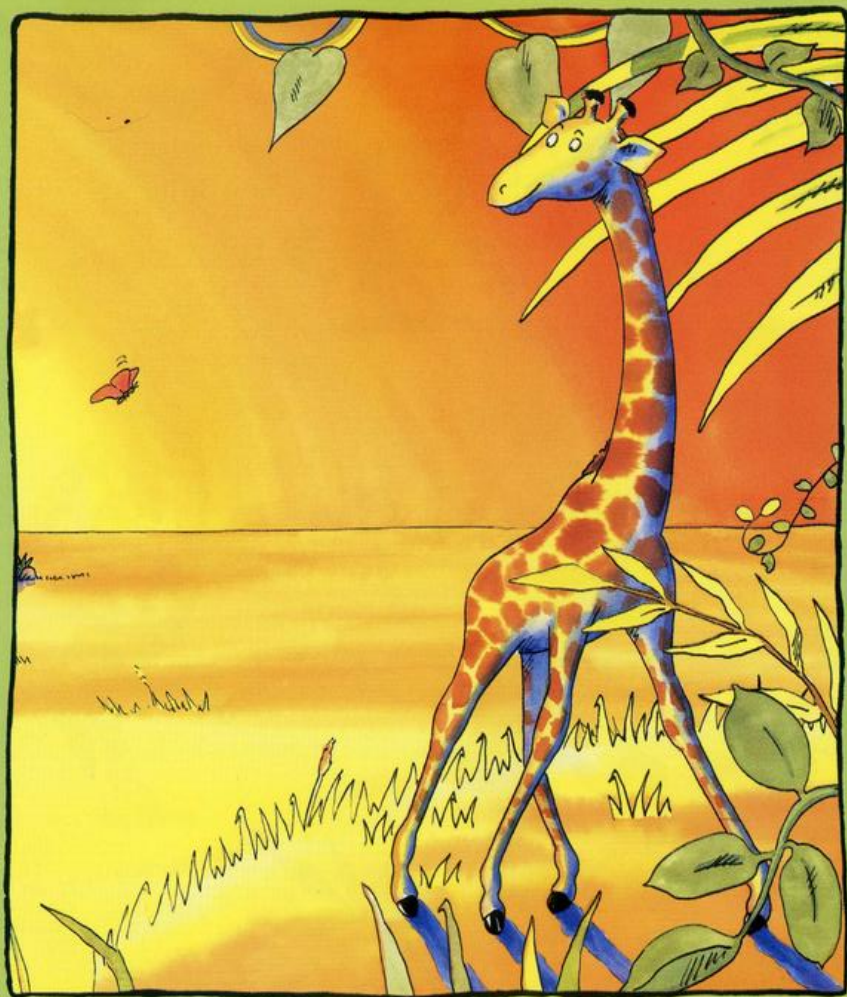

SPOT THE DIFFERENCE

Look carefully at these two pictures of Gerald the Giraffe.

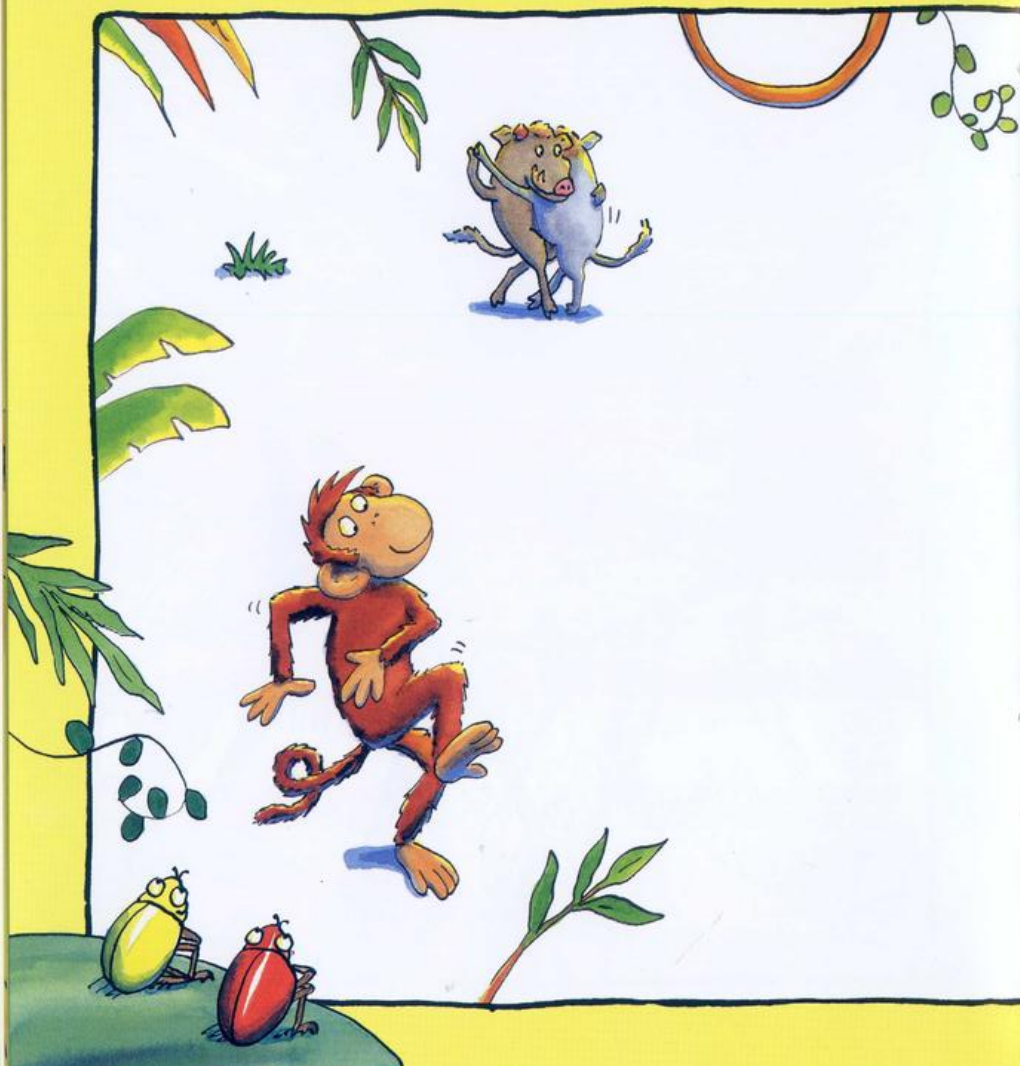

Ten things are missing from the second picture. Can you find them all?

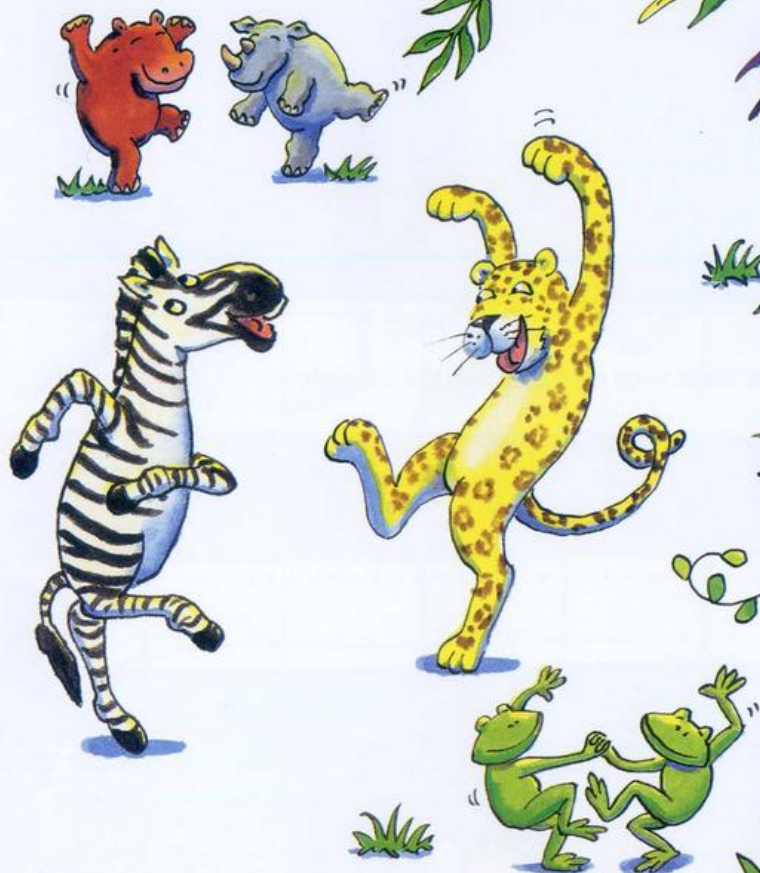

COMPLETE THE PICTURE

Poor Chimp doesn't have a dancing partner! Draw him a friend to dance with.

Now add some more dancing animals.
Don't forget to colour them in.

SKY WRITING

The butterfly has written a name in the sky.
Draw over the dotted lines to see whose name it is.

G e r a l d

Now write your own name on the line below.

COPY CRICKET

Can you finish the picture of the clever cricket by copying the picture square by square?

The head and body have been drawn for you.

JUNGLE JUMBLE

The dancing animals are all mixed up! Draw lines to match each animal with its pair.

FUNNY DANCING

There are some very funny dancers at the Jungle Dance! Draw a silly dancing picture in the space above, and colour it in.

JOIN THE DOTS

Join the dots to see which animal is munching on the jungle leaves. Then why not colour him in?

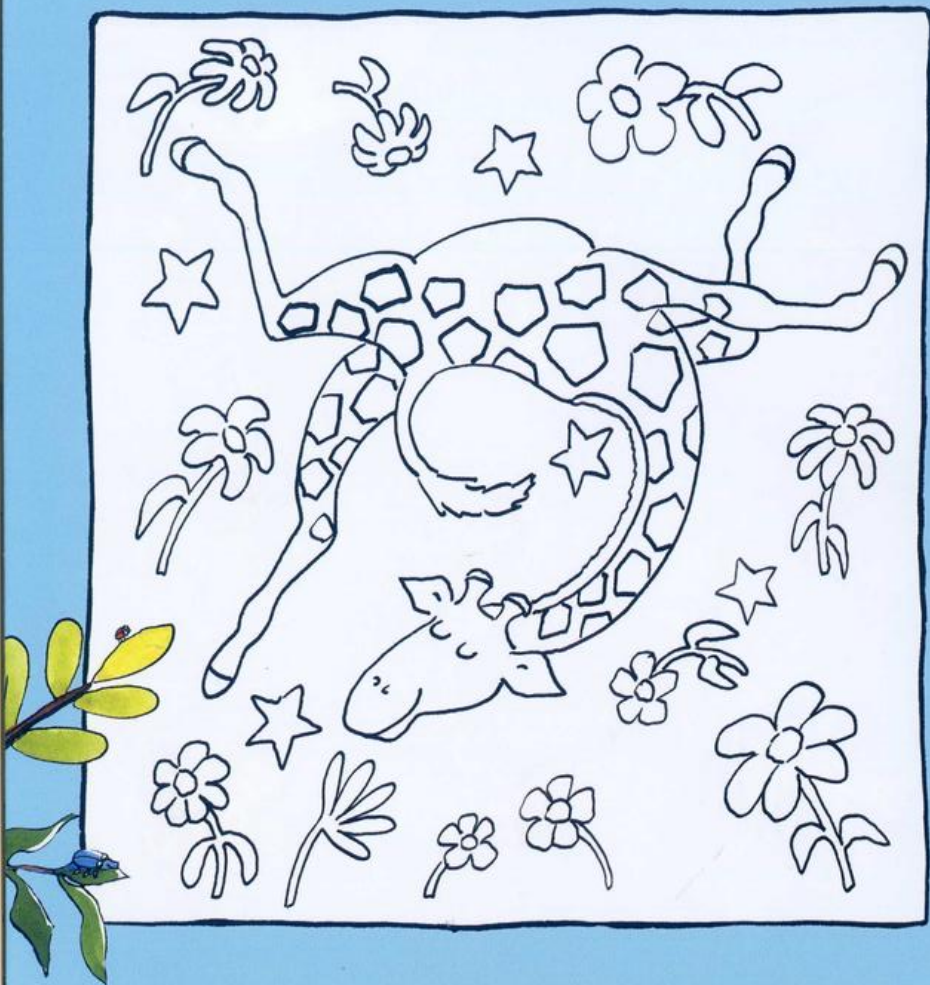

IDENTITY PARADE

Can you find the picture that matches
this picture of Gerald dancing?
Only one is exactly the same.

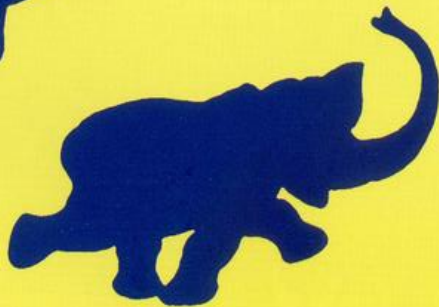

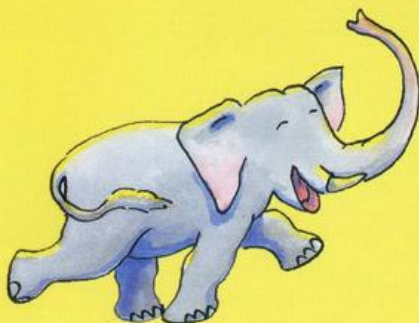

FLOWER POWER

The animals are throwing Gerald flowers.
Colour in the picture using your brightest colours.

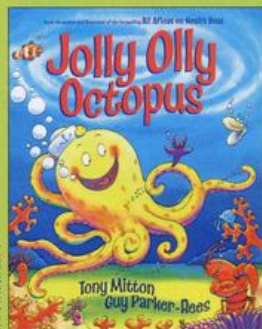

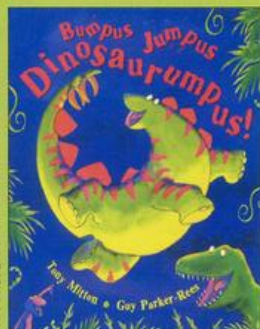

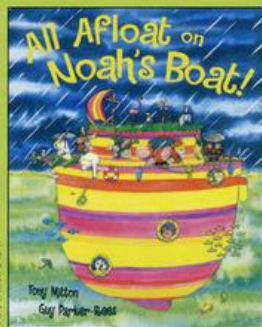

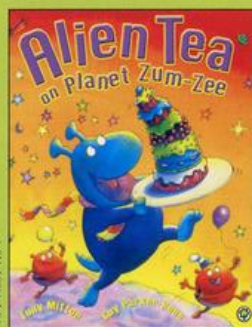

SHADOW MATCH

What a muddle! Can you draw lines to match each animal with its shadow?
